GET TO KNOW OUR BENEFITING ORGANIZATIONS

ORANGE COUNTY RESCUE MISSION

Each story of an unhoused individual begins with unresolved issues, deep within, which result in losses – not just of a home, but of everything that gives hope. At the core of homelessness, at its heart, there is a brokenness that can only be addressed by restoration through Jesus Christ. Every meal served, every service provided and every lesson taught at OC Rescue Mission is shared with the intent to show the life-changing truth and love of Jesus Christ. It is this truth and love in action that rescues, brings hope and ultimately restores, resulting in self-sufficient and Christ-empowered people.

LINKS PLAYERS

At Links Players, we help men and women change the conversation at their local golf clubs and courses through Links Fellowships—from surface-level to substance, me to others, and temporal to eternal. Links Players provides free resources for the Fellowships to center their discussions around, including the annual Links Players magazine for outreach, the Links Daily Devotional with Bible studies, and weekly videos. Over the past 35 years, Links Players has been able to thrive through the generous support of our donors who understand and sustain our vision: to reach influential men and women who have the ability to impact many others in their clubs and communities. www.LinksPlayers.com

MISSION VIEJO COUNTRY CLUB HOST

The history of Mission Viejo Country Club, a private, members-only golf club, is full of celebrated milestones for both the City of Mission Viejo and for the game of golf. Initially nicknamed "Mission Impossible," the Robert Trent Jones Sr.-designed championship golf course has hosted many PGA events and has also been the training ground for world-class champions such as Mark O'Meara. Nestled between Saddleback Mountain and the pristine beaches of Laguna, Mission Viejo Country Club carries forth the old California tradition of privacy and elegance with its old-world arches, Andalusian architecture, and stunning vistas.
